Info:Retaliation (real name Derek Eason) is a solo artist based out of The Bay Area, California. He is a producer and DJ, who also takes requests and delivers "real world" music. His style is soulful; primarily focusing on funk and soul, but also including hip hop, and almost anything else. He also occasionally produces. . His debut full-length album, Say It Slang (2008), is a groovy trip through the soul and funk worlds, with a dose of rhythm and blues thrown in for good measure..

debut album 2003: "When you've made a whole album based on material lifted from one of the greatest songwriters in history, it stands to reason you could at least trot out the signature tune. And Thievery Corporation don't disappoint." Mojo Magazine said:
"Thievery Corporation's debut album, Temptations, is a crossover of hip-hop, jazz, electro and soul, but it never sounds like a pastiche.
They put it together with care and precision." In a review of Thievery Corporation's second album, Pitchfork Media said of "Predictable and potentially dangerous: The duo have often veered into the territory of a strangely evocative vogue of retro-soul, but their resurrection of Handel's first opera does that name and its current cultural capital perfectly." In reviewing their 2003 album, Pitchfork Media said of "Radio Retaliation": "The album's buoyant rhythms and dense and murky keyboards result in a sound similar to the best of Eric B. & Rakim—save for a minimal, almost metronomic breakbeat undercurrent that makes this dance pop feel especially heavy." AllMusic said of their 2006 album: "The duo's last release, 2005's Temptations, is often cited as the best of the great crossover acts, while 2005's Genghis Khan was the best of the duo's solo efforts." In a review of their 2008 album Radio Retaliation, Pitchfork Media said of the title track: "The golden-age language that makes this one such a colorful joy to listen to is already beginning to feel slightly antiquated, but the melody and production never age like so much old soul."
