WEST VIRGINIA DIVISION OF HIGHWAYS, et al. No. 8225SC652. Court of Appeals of North Carolina. June 6, 1983. *688 Smith, Anderson, Blount, Dorsett, Mitchell & Jernigan by Mack S. Blount, Charlotte, for plaintiff-appellant. Atty. Gen. Rufus L. Edmisten by Asst. Atty. Gen. Thomas S. Carley, Raleigh, for defendant-appellee West Virginia Div. of Highways. HEDRICK, Judge. Plaintiff first argues that the trial court erred in holding that it was not entitled to an award of costs and fees pursuant to N.C.Gen.Stat. Sec. 143-291.1(d). We agree. The test for determining whether a private action brought pursuant to N.C.Gen.Stat. Sec. 143-291.1 (1983) is "action instituted... by a corporation" for purposes of a fee award, is whether the remedy of the private litigant is available in a court of general jurisdiction, and if so, whether the proceeding is "instituted by a corporation." The plain language of N.C.Gen.Stat. Sec. 143-291.1(d) provides that "[i]f the court finds that the provisions of subsection (c) of this section have been violated, the court shall award such costs and reasonable attorneys' fees as the court determines." (Emphasis added). Since plaintiff's action was instituted in a court of general jurisdiction, it is clear that she was entitled to an award of costs

In addition to promoting better business practices, the audit, by the state Comptroller's Office, will affect the interests of the companies, which receive annual fees for managing health care programs for some of the state's most needy residents, state officials said. "As in the past, these companies are charged with accountability to report in the best interests of New Yorkers," said Comptroller Thomas P. DiNapoli. PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP was selected as the audit's independent contractor and was responsible for reviewing each company's practices and making recommendations, based on its experience with similar organizations, for changes that should be made. Some of the changes are to be made by the New York State Health Facilities Council, while others will be decided by the state, DiNapoli said. Auditors reviewed the financial and management practices of six companies, including the largest by far: the New York State Health and Human Services Corp., a subsidiary of the New York City Department of Health and Mental Hygiene, which oversees the operation of some of the state's 2d92ce491b
